

Electrons to High Value Chemical Products

In the E2C project 7 partners from the coastal areas of the 2 Seas region combine renewable energy with strong industrial activity. By the end of this project two highly flexible pilot demonstrators will be built for conversion of CO₂ with renewable energy and hydrogen to fuels and platform chemicals.

Project partners:

This project is also financed by:

